Recent arrival from the east coast that did well last week winning his first race here in a time of 30.97. He has drawn much better in the red tonight and despite meeting a stronger line-up he has plenty of each way appeal.

Talented chaser that has won up here in a quick 30.41 but he can be tricky to find on his night. Last week down at Mandurah he ran a nice 3rd over the 405m trip and with a decent jump he could prove to be a knockout type in this.

Rating 96. Flew out from this box last week & registered an all the victory in a time of 30.63 which was a length off his PB. He is going to need luck to repeat last week's heroics against these but it would be wise to keep him safe.

Dropped back to grade 5 company recently and he was able to win in that grade 3 starts back in a solid time of 30.89. He has finished unplaced at his last 2 starts up in grade and it may be wise to wait to he drops back before considering.

Opened up his local account with a top 27.53 win down at MAN over the 490m trip & last week at his first start here at headquarters he ran a nice 2nd behind BLACK WOLF in a time of 30.93. With a bit of luck he can certainly push these.

Found form winning 3 races in a row late last year but since resuming from a short spell she has struggled to recapture that top form. The squeeze box will not make it an easy task for her at all & at this stage am happy to risk her.

Resumed from a long spell last week and after a sluggish beginning she failed to get warm finishing 7th. She is much better suited from the red box tonight and with last week's run under her belt she should be improved. Each way.

Making his debut over this tough staying trip tonight. 4 starts back he ran on nicely over the 530m trip to win in a time of 30.88 and since then he has been placed once over the 642m journey. May struggle with first up fitness.
