

TOMMY TEARS INTO WA BRED CHAMPIONSHIP FINAL

There were no problems in pink for Tommy Shelby as the superstar chaser rumbled into another feature race final after blitzing his WA Bred Championship heat at Cannington last Saturday.

The blue wonder from Steve Wither's kennels fired out of box eight to snare the early lead before leaving his rivals in the dust.

He then cruised around the city circuit before crossing the finish line six lengths ahead of Redcap Monelli in 29.74.

Tommy Shelby has now won six in row and will be highly favoured to extend his picket fence in the final after he drew the pole for the trophy decider.

The other heat went the way of Star Book for trainer Jamie Marsh.
